Research and Technology) (ZAFT) is located in Berlin C 17, Koepenicker- 25X1 strasse 80-82. Th[redacted] side of the six-story building borders on Koepenickerstrasse[redacted] building is in a square fo[redacted]d by that street and by Rungestras[redacted]e north, Bruecken Strass[redacted]e east and Am Koellnischen Park[redacted]e west. The ZAFT building [redacted]located just south of a former resid[redacted] area, approximately in the center of the square, 25X1 now in ruins, and separated from this area by a wall about ten meters high. To the west of the ZAFT building, still inside the square, is the site of Bau-Union, Berlin. Northwest of the square in which ZAFT is located is the Koellnischer Park. The nearest U-Bahn station is the one on the intersection of Koepenickerstrasse and Neanderstrasse, south- 25X1 east of ZAFT (See Attachment 1).

of the buil[redacted]penickerstrasse.
There is another entrance (3) [redacted]es, located farther east on Koepenickerstrasse, which leads directly into the courtyard. The 25X1 personnel entrance leads into a hall which, in its southwest corner, has a telephone booth (4). The hall extends in an aisle with an exit (5) to the courtyard. South of this aisle is the receptionist's office (6) and a day room (7) for the receptionist. Another exit (8) leads into a second hall (9) adjacent to the first one, with a staircase leading into the upper stories. Another exit (10) leads from there into the courtyard.
The staircase is bordered on the south by the visitors room (11) and on the north by the guard room (12) of the Volkspolizei guard. Visitors who enter the building through the main entrance and have passed the recep-tionist's office will be checked for credentials at entrance 8 before being let into the visitors' room (11). The northern part of the building is almost entirely occupied by two big halls: one hall (13) serves as the "Great Cultural Hall" and at the same time as a dining mess; another hall (14) serves as the "Small Cultural Hall". Hall 13 is separated from the courtyard by an aisle with an exit (15) into the courtyard. Another staircase leads upstairs from this aisle. The southeast wing of the first floor is taken up by the library and reading room (16), from whence an
